

The background of the central text is a circular image of an airfield at sunset. A large, dark, multi-engine propeller plane is parked on the grass. To its left is a red vintage car. To its right is a yellow biplane with the number '6017-1' and a roundel on its wing. In the sky above, a biplane with '5000 YEAR' on its wing and a red and white single-engine plane are flying.
