

Noted items for EAA Chapter 322
Meeting held via Zoom
Wednesday – 06 May 2020

---

NOTE: – The May meeting was held via Zoom due to the National Lock Down, instituted by the SA Government, in an attempt to prohibit the spread of the COVID-19 virus.

As with many EAA Chapters around the world, Chapter 322 hosted it's first virtual meeting. Chairman, Neil Bowden had been invited to join in on a few Chapter meetings in the USA. He invited some of the members from abroad to join in on this chapter's monthly meeting.

The meeting commenced at 18h00. 60 members logged in to meet this new way of meeting. The balance of planned meetings will held "virtually" during lockdown. All ZOOM Meetings will be recorded and a link will be broadcast to members.

Goodbye to Rosie, the queen of Corona

Answer: Rosie is the Queen of Corona in the Paul Simon song "Me and Julio Down by the Schoolyard." Mr. Simon says the song was "pure confection" and had no meaning to real people or events. It's just a catchy tune and he got a laugh out of singing the lyrics. In other words, there is no Queen Rosie.
